PROBLEM 3 - Frog Jump

CALCULATE the distance between the frog and the target position, (lets call this the travel distance)

DIVIDE the travel distance by the jump distance, keeping track of the total jumps and remainder.

IF the remainder is not 0,

ADD +1 to the total jumps required

RETURN the total jumps required.